

Food for thought

A CHINESE restaurant is celebrating after being named as a finalist in a top national food award, writes Tal Miller.

Alisan Restaurant, at The Junction, Engineer's Way, Wembley, will compete with two other restaurants in the prestigious Restaurant Magazine 'Best Dishes' Award.

Alisan's Golden Dumpling dish will have to see off competition from rivals Kai Mayfair and Moa Tia in Fulham, when the winner is announced next month at the Honourable Artillery Company in London.

The judging panel comprised The Craft Guild of Chefs and Restaurant Magazine staff.